SAMUEL AYERS.

FORMERLY OF DANVILLE, KENTUCKY, WATCH MAKER.

Successor to B. F. Meek, Main Street, Frankfort, Ky., continues the watch repairing business at the old stand. By promptness and careful work he hopes to merit the patronage of those who desire to have their watches repaired without damage being done them. Surveyors' compasses repaired and other instruments requiring delicate and accurate adjustment.

In retiring from business in Frankfort I take pleasure in expressing my entire confidence in Mr. S. Ayers, and from my long acquaintance with him as a workman, do not hesitate to commend him as every way capable of meeting the expectation of my former patrons.

R. H. Wilbourne, Owenton, says: "Brown's Iron Bitters has given me more benefit than all medicines and physicians combined."

The big sale of Jersey Cattle, which has been the theme of conversation in our midst for some time, came off as advertised. The attendance was large, the day auspicious, the bidding spirited, and the prices realized the handsomest that have ever been obtained in this rising branch of the cattle business. The crowd represented eighteen States, and an enormous amount of capital. We congratulate the owners of these animals, and especially our own fellow-citizen, Hon. W. J. Chinn, upon their success.

The entire proceeds of the sale were $36,025, of which $25,160 was from sale of animals of W. J. Chinn; $5,760 cattle of S. M. Neal; and $4,105 cattle of Wm. Irvine. Chinn's average, $12; Neal's average, $375; and Irvine's, $316.

The Shelbyville and Pleasureville base ball clubs had a warm game Saturday. In playing nine innings the score was 14 to 14; tenth inning 16 to 17 in favor of Shelbyville.

Poor old Aunt Nancy Brewer, we are sorry to say, died at the residence of Jno. H. Moore Wednesday morning at 20 minutes past 8 o'clock, at the age of 59 years. She left a number of children and grandchildren, and many affectionate friends to mourn her loss. She has been a strict member of the Methodist Church for 40 years. We hope we may all be as willing to die as she was, and go happy.

The heirs of the Hutchison family have been into a law suit about their father's estate, in which one of them, Sarah Slattery, beat the whole of them and they found out they could not get anything by law, so they are now trying to run her off the land, as there is no one living with her, and they think it would be an easy matter to do so. Some one unknown rode up to the house one night last week calling for her and was answered by Mrs. Wintworth, a near neighbor, who told him she was not at home, thinking it some of the neighbors.

It is supposed he is the one who left the kuklux notice on the gate post and fourteen switches. Tied together, the notice informing her that if she did not divide her property among her brothers and sisters that they would do her worse than they did Ambrose McDaniel, saying that no one of the family wrote the notice, and that it came from Henry county. Mrs. Slattery has plenty to do her as long as she lives, if they will let her alone, and now she is afraid to stay at home on that account. We would like, if possible, for such things to be stopped. Bald Knob will have the worst name of any precinct in the county, as it does not have the best at the present time, but it was not for one or two families it would be as good as any. They are not all a rowdy set; if you think so come and see for yourself; there is as good people in Bald Knob as there is anywhere.
